

Hi, I'm Cat! I'm a singer & songwriter from Las Vegas. Fusing together country pop songwriting, hip hop beats, and vocals influenced by both R&B and country music, I like to call my musical genre "disco cowboy." As an artist, I'm a big sister & advice giver. I write about the little heartbreaks and emotions we feel every day in hopes that people who relate to my music can work out their smaller emotions before they turn into bigger, more painful ones. My biggest influences are Taylor Swift, Kacey Musgraves, & Kelsea Ballerini, and my close collaborators include Michael Locatelli, GNZ, & Matias Malagardis.

Check out my soundcloud below for a reel of music I've been working on!
